Dear friends.

I will have a party and I would like you to come.

I will have a party in my house's patio.

I will invite a few friends from high school, I will invite 3 friends from college, and many friends from university.

The party will have a costume theme; I will buy a Superman cake to then eat that cake.

I already have some glasses, I have few chairs, I have many spoons, I only have 2 tables, I don't have any stereo to listen to music.

Would you help if you brought: some glasses, a few chairs, many napkins.

I bought 2 pineapples, 3 watermelons, many candies, many lollipops, some desserts.

I hope your assistance.
